The Luckiamute Watershed Council (LWC) is a nonprofit community-based organization that works to improve and protect water quality and habitat in the Luckiamute and Ash Creek watersheds.

We are looking for volunteers!

- ✓ Do you enjoy planning and organizing community activities?
- ✓ Do you get inspired and excited about meeting new people?
- ✓ Would you like to help spread the word about watershed conservation?
- ✓ Would you like to help us with Spanish language translation and outreach?

If you answered "yes" to any of these questions, come share your energy and talents as part of our Education and Outreach Committee!
