ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

Federal Tax-Exempt Provisions

5.1 Exclusive Purpose
The corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively as a charitable and educational organization as defined in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The corporation is intended to qualify as a tax-exempt organization and public charity within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3). The affairs of the corporation shall be conducted in such a manner as to qualify for tax exemption under that section or the corresponding provision of any future federal tax laws.
5.2 No Private Benefit
The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to purposes exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. No part of the net earnings or assets of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation.

5.3 Limitations on Political Activity
No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. The corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

5.4 Restrictions on Activities
Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

5.5 Director’s Limited Liability to the Corporation

A. Release from Liability: The personal liability to the corporation, for monetary or other damages, of each member of the board of directors and each uncompensated officer of the corporation for conduct as a director or officer shall be eliminated to fullest extent permitted by current or future Oregon or federal law, except that he or she shall remain liable for:

1. acts or omissions before the date this provision becomes effective as part of these amended Articles;
2. any breach of director’s duty of loyalty to the corporation;
3. acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;
4. any unlawful distribution;
5. any transaction from which a director derived an improper personal benefit;
6. illegal loans to or guarantees for directors and officers;
7. actions brought by a person or entity other than the corporation itself; and
8. any violation under ORS 65.361-65.367 of the Oregon Nonprofit Corporations Act, or the corresponding section of any future Oregon statutes, including conflicts of interest, unlawful distributions and gross negligence.
ARTICLE VI
TYPE OF CORPORATION
The corporation is a Public Benefit Nonprofit Corporation.

ARTICLE VII
VOTING MEMBERS
Luckiamute Watershed Council does not have voting members as defined in Oregon Nonprofit Corporation Act, ORS Ch. 65, or the corresponding section of any future Oregon statutes.

ARTICLE VIII
DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS UPON DISSOLUTION
Upon dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one of more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the court of appropriate jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as that court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
